Criminal Action No. 06-14-JJF

MOTION TO UNSEAL SENTENCING
HEARING AND JUDGMENT OF CONVICTION

Now comes the United States, and respectfully states as follows:

1. The Court held a sentencing hearing in the above on September 13, 2006.
2. The Clerk's Office has recently advised the undersigned that the sentencing hearing is being treated as though it were under seal.
3. Neither counsel for the Government (AUSA Shannon T. Hanson) nor for the Defendant (Charles E. Butler, Esquire) remembers the Court sealing the hearing.
4. Neither counsel objects to the unsealing of the hearing. Defense counsel does not object to this Motion.

WHEREFORE, the United States respectfully requests that the Court unseal the hearing (to the extent that it was sealed), and order that any judgment of conviction be publicly available.

COLM F. CONNOLLY
United States Attorney
